PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-CEN, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Redbox Entertainment Inc. (f/k/a Seaport Global Acquisition Corp.) (the “Company”) is unable to file its Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended September 30, 2021 on a timely basis because of uncertainty around the value of the Class A common stock subject to possible redemption.

In connection with the preparation of the Company’s financial statements as of September 30, 2021, management determined it should restate its previously reported financial statements. The Company previously determined the value of the Class A common stock subject to possible redemption to be equal to the redemption value, reduced due to provisions in its amended and restated certificate of incorporation that the Company would not redeem the Class A common stock in an amount that would cause its net tangible assets to be less than $5,000,001. However, during the preparation of the Company’s financial statements as of September 30, 2021, management determined that, notwithstanding the provision in the amended and restated certificate of incorporation described above, the Class A common stock issued during the Initial Public Offering could have been redeemed or become redeemable subject to the occurrence of future events considered outside the Company’s control. Therefore, management concluded that the redemption value should include all Class A common stock subject to possible redemption, resulting in the Class A common stock subject to possible redemption being equal to its redemption value. As a result, management has noted a reclassification adjustment related to temporary equity and permanent equity. This resulted in an adjustment to the initial carrying value of the Class A common stock subject to possible redemption with the offset recorded to additional paid-in capital (to the extent available), accumulated deficit and Class A common stock.

As a result of the above, on November 15, 2021 the Company filed a current report on Form 8-K announcing that the Audit Committee, based on the recommendation of and after consultation with management, concluded that its historical financial statements as of December 31, 2020 and for the period from July 24, 2020 (inception) through December 31, 2020, as previously restated in the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K/A filed with the SEC on May 26, 2021, its unaudited interim financial statements as of and for the three months ended March 31, 2021 included in the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC on May 27, 2021 and its unaudited interim financial statements as of and for the three and six months ended June 30, 2021 included in the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC on August 16, 2021 (together, the “Impacted Filings”) should be restated because the Class A common stock subject to possible redemption should be equal to its redemption value, and to restate its financial statements accordingly. The Company intends to amend the Impacted Filings promptly to restate the financial statements for the periods. The Company anticipates that it will file its Form 10-Q within the five-day grace period provided by Exchange Act Rule 12b-25.
