On May 10, 2022 Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment, Inc. (Nasdaq: CSSE) and Redbox Entertainment Inc. (Nasdaq: RDBX) entered into a definitive agreement, pursuant to which Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment will acquire Redbox. In connection with the merger, Redbox distributed the following FAQs to employees on or about May 11, 2022.

REDBOX Employee FAQ – Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment Announcement

1. What was announced?

- We announced Redbox has entered into a definitive agreement to combine with Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment, Inc. (Nasdaq: CSSE) to create the leading integrated media platform with scaled content production and distribution.
- We expect the transaction will close in the second half of 2022.

2. Why did Redbox enter into this transaction?

- We believe this is a powerful combination that will unite two like-minded entertainment providers with a shared vision of providing consumers with great content at an affordable price and disrupting the digital ecosystem.
- Content and scale matters more than anything, and together, our two businesses will be more powerful than either could be on their own.
- Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment's core offering, Crackle Plus, is a group of video-on-demand streaming services that perfectly complement Redbox's legacy business as well as our newer digital offerings. With 40 million monthly active users, Crackle Plus has one of the top AVOD networks.
- There is a massive market opportunity in AVOD, and Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment brings substantial capabilities, including technology and existing advertising relationships, to this combination.

3. Why Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment?

- Like Redbox, Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment recognizes that the TV experience is fragmented, expensive and confusing for consumers.
- Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment's leadership team sees Redbox as a powerful, complementary asset that will help advance a shared mission of providing consumers with great content at an affordable price.
- Importantly, they value the Redbox brand, including our legacy kiosk operations, and are committed to investing in our digital transformation.

4. How did this transaction come about?

- As we shared previously, our Board has been evaluating strategic alternatives, including a possible sale or merger. Combined with the slower recovery in our kiosk business, we needed to consider different paths forward.
- Through this process, Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment emerged as the natural partner for us. They recognize that the TV experience is fragmented, expensive and confusing for consumers and see Redbox as a powerful, complementary asset that will help advance a shared mission of providing consumers with great content at an affordable price.
- Importantly, they value the Redbox brand, including our legacy kiosk operations, and are committed to investing in digital transformation.
- Together with Redbox's 40 million+ loyalty members, our content library and Free Live TV offering, we'll be able to offer consumers unparalleled choices for a phenomenal value.

5. What does this mean for Redbox employees?

- We believe that this transaction is a positive step forward for our company and will create opportunities for Redbox employees as we build on our momentum and drive growth. We recognize it has not been easy over the past several months. We are confident that by joining together with Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment, our two organizations will be stronger and more powerful than either could have been on their own.
 - We look forward to joining the forces of our 1,200-strong employee workforce with Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment's ~200 employees.

- A big part of the reason for Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment's interest in Redbox is because of our talented team, the culture we have built and what we are capable of building in the future.
- It is important to remember that the announcement is just the first step toward completing this transaction. Until the transaction is complete, which we expect to occur in the second half of 2022, it is business as usual at Redbox. This means you should not expect any significant changes.
- We are counting on you to remain focused on your day-to-day responsibilities.
- We are committed to keeping you informed and look forward to sharing more information as we move through the next stages in this transaction over the next several months.

6. Will there be layoffs as a result of this transaction?

- A majority of the synergies for this transaction will be non-people related as we eliminate redundant public company costs, save on content costs and streamline technology.
- However, as in any deal like this, there may be some overlap in functions but we don't expect that to be a significant number. Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment recognizes the importance of the Redbox team to our success and is committed treating our employees with respect and fairness throughout the integration process.
- We are committed to keeping you informed and look forward to sharing more information as we move through the next stages in this transaction over the next several months.

7. Will there be changes to Redbox's employee salaries, compensation or benefits as a result of this transaction?

- There are no contemplated changes to compensation or benefits as we work to complete the transaction.
- We expect that Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment will share more details on their overall compensation and benefit philosophy as we get closer to the expected close.

8. What will happen to the leadership team following the transaction?

- Those details have not been finalized, but will be prior to closing.
- For most employees we expect limited changes – Redbox will continue operating much as we do today, even after the transaction closes.

9. How will our business strategy change as a result of this transaction?

- Our overarching strategy should largely remain the same: provide great entertainment choices at an affordable price.
- By joining with Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment, we will gain access to additional resources and much needed scale to continue our digital transformation.
- Of course, with any transaction like this, there may be adjustments to how we work or execute certain aspects of our plans.
- We are committed to keeping you informed and look forward to sharing more information as we move through the next stages in this transaction over the next several months.

10. Will our headquarters change once the transaction closes? What about our name and brand?

- A lot of decisions about how the two companies will be integrated haven't been made yet and will be decided over the coming months once the deal has been completed, which is expected to be in the second half of 2022.
- We are committed to keeping you informed and look forward to sharing more information as we move through the next stages in this transaction over the next several months.

11. I own Redbox stock. What will happen to stock owned by employees?

- Upon closing of the transaction, each Redbox share will be converted into shares of Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment stock.
- Any unvested stock will immediately vest at the time of closing.

12. What happens between now and closing?

- The most important thing you can do right now is stay focused on execution and serving our customers.

- We are excited about the opportunity to join forces with Chicken Soup for the Soul Entertainment, and today’s announcement is just the first step.
- There are several important steps required before we complete the transaction, which we expect to occur in the second half of 2022. Until then, we will remain an independent company, and it’s business as usual for all of us.

13. What should I do if I am contacted by media or third parties about the transaction?

- This announcement may result in increased attention on Redbox and it is important that we speak with one voice.
- If you are contacted by media or other third parties about today’s news, please forward any inquiries you receive from investors, media or others to Mike Feldner at mike.feldner@redbox.com.
