Item 8.01 Other Events.

On May 16, 2021, Seaport Global Acquisition Corp. (“SGAC”) entered into an Business Combination Agreement (the “Business Combination Agreement”) by and among SGAC, Seaport Merger Sub, LLC, a wholly owned subsidiary of SGAC (“Merger Sub”), Redwood Holdco, LP (“Parent”), and Redwood Intermediate, LLC (“Redbox” or the “Company”).

Subsequent to the date of the Business Combination Agreement, in June 2021, Redbox learned that certain film studios (the Company’s primary content providers) were delaying releases of certain films, or modifying their original distribution plans with respect to other films, as a result of continued closures of, or capacity restrictions at, movie theaters due to the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, each of which results in fewer releases on Redbox’s platform than we had previously expected for 2021. As a result, Redbox expects its earnings to be lower throughout the remainder of 2021 than previously expected, leading to a larger year over year growth estimate as the industry is expected to return to a more normalized release schedule going forward. Redbox has not changed its projections for 2022 or 2023.

Neither SGAC nor Redbox or any of their respective affiliates intends to, and, except to the extent required by applicable law, each of them expressly disclaims any obligation to, update, revise or correct the Projections to reflect circumstances existing or arising after the date such Projections were generated or to reflect the occurrence of future events, even in the event that any or all of the assumptions underlying the Projections are shown to be in error or any of the Projections otherwise would not be realized.

Filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K is the form of investor presentation including the post-signing updated projections. The post-signing updated projections were disclosed in the preliminary proxy statement filed on the date hereof.

IMPORTANT ADDITIONAL INFORMATION AND WHERE TO FIND IT

In connection with the proposed business combination, SGAC intends to file preliminary and definitive proxy statements with the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”). The preliminary and definitive proxy statements and other relevant documents will be sent or given to the stockholders of SGAC as of the record date established for voting on the proposed business combination and will contain important information about the proposed business combination and related matters. Stockholders of SGAC and other interested persons are advised to read, when available, the preliminary proxy statement and any amendments thereto and, once available, the definitive proxy statement, in connection with SGAC’s solicitation of proxies for the meeting of stockholders to be held to approve, among other things, the proposed business combination because the proxy statement will contain important information about SGAC, the Company and the proposed business combination. When available, the definitive proxy statement will be mailed to Seaport Global Acquisition’s stockholders as of a record date to be established for voting on the proposed business combination. Stockholders will also be able to obtain copies of the proxy statement, without charge, once available, at the SEC’s website at www.sec.gov/ or by directing a request to: Seaport Global Acquisition Corp., 360 Madison Avenue, 20th Floor, New York, NY 10017, Attention: Secretary, telephone: (212) 616-7700.

This communication does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities or a solicitation of any vote or approval, nor shall there be any sale of any securities in any state or jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation, or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of such other jurisdiction.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This Current Report on Form 8-K includes certain statements that are not historical facts but are forward-looking statements for purposes of the safe harbor provisions under the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements generally are accompanied by words such as “believe,” “may,” “will,” “estimate,” “continue,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “expect,” “should,” “would,” “plan,” “predict,” “potential,” “seem,” “seek,” “future,” “outlook,” and similar expressions that predict or indicate future events or trends or that are not statements of historical matters. All statements, other than statements of present or historical fact included in this Current Report on Form 8-K, regarding SGAC’s proposed business combination with the Company, SGAC’s ability to consummate the transaction, the benefits of the transaction and the combined company’s future financial performance, as well as the combined company’s strategy, future operations, estimated financial position, estimated revenues and losses, projected costs, prospects, plans and objectives of management are forward-looking statements. These statements are based on various assumptions, whether or not identified in this Current Report on Form 8-K, and on the current expectations of the respective management of SGAC and the Company and are not predictions of actual performance. These forward-looking statements are provided for illustrative purposes only and are not intended to serve as, and must not be relied on as, a guarantee, an assurance, a prediction or a definitive statement of fact or probability. Actual events and circumstances are difficult or impossible to predict and will differ from assumptions. Many actual events and circumstances are beyond the control of SGAC or the Company. Potential risks and uncertainties that could cause the actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, changes in domestic and foreign business, market, financial, political and legal conditions; the inability of the parties to successfully or timely consummate the business combination, including the risk that any regulatory approvals are not obtained, are delayed or are subject to unanticipated conditions that could adversely affect the combined company or the expected benefits of the business combination or that the approval of the stockholders of SGAC or the Company is not obtained; failure to realize the anticipated benefits of business combination; risk relating to the uncertainty of the projected financial information with respect to the Company; the amount of redemption requests made by SGAC’s stockholders; the overall level of consumer demand for the Company’s products; general economic conditions and other factors affecting consumer confidence, preferences, and behavior; disruption and volatility in the global currency, capital, and credit markets; the financial strength of the Company’s customers; the Company’s ability to implement its business and growth strategy; changes in governmental regulation, the Company’s exposure to litigation claims and other loss contingencies; disruptions and other impacts to the Company’s business, as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic and government actions and restrictive measures implemented in response, and as a result of the proposed transaction; the Company’s ability to retain and expand customer relationships; competitive pressures from many sources, including those using other distribution channels, having more experience, larger or more appealing inventory, better financing, and better relationships with those in the physical and streaming movie and television industries; developments in the home video distribution market as newer technologies and distribution channels compete for market share, and the Company experiences a secular decline in the physical rental market; the impact of decreased quantity and quality of movie content availability for physical and digital distribution due to changes in quantity of new releases by studios, movie content failing to appeal to consumers’ tastes, increased focus on digital sales and rentals, and other general industry-related factors; the termination, non-renewal or renegotiation on materially adverse terms of the Company’s contracts or relationships with one or more of its significant retailers or studios; the Company’s inability to obtain licenses to digital movie or television content for home entertainment viewing; the Company’s reliance upon a number of partners to make its digital service available on their devices; unforeseen costs and potential liability in connection with content the Company acquires, produces, licenses and/or distributes through its service; the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on the Company’s business, results of operations and financial condition, its suppliers and customers and on the global economy; the impact that global climate change trends may have on the Company and its suppliers and customers; the Company’s ability to protect patents, trademarks and other intellectual property rights; any breaches of, or interruptions in, SGAC’s information systems; fluctuations in the price, availability and quality of electricity and other raw materials and contracted products as well as foreign currency fluctuations; changes in tax laws and liabilities, tariffs, legal, regulatory, political and economic risks. More information on potential factors that could affect SGAC’s or the Company’s financial results is included from time to time in SGAC’s public reports filed with the SEC, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and Current Reports on Form 8-K as well as the preliminary and the definitive proxy statements that SGAC intends to file with the SEC in connection with SGAC’s solicitation of proxies for the meeting of stockholders to be held to approve, among other things, the proposed business combination. If any of these risks materialize or SGAC’s or the Company’s assumptions prove incorrect, actual results could differ materially from the results implied by these forward-looking statements. There may be additional risks that neither SGAC nor the Company presently know, or that SGAC and the Company currently believe are immaterial, that could also cause actual results to differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements. In addition, forward-looking statements reflect SGAC’s and the Company’s expectations, plans or forecasts of future events and views as of the date of this Current Report on Form 8-K. SGAC and the Company anticipate that subsequent events and developments will cause their assessments to change. However, while SGAC and the Company may elect to update these forward-looking statements at some point in the future, SGAC and the Company specifically disclaim any obligation to do so, except as required by law. These forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing SGAC’s or the Company’s assessments as of any date subsequent to the date of this Current Report on Form 8-K. Accordingly, undue reliance should not be placed upon the forward-looking statements.

NO OFFER OR SOLICITATION

This Current Report on Form 8-K shall not constitute a solicitation of a proxy, consent or authorization with respect to any securities or in respect of the Business Combination. This Current Report on Form 8-K shall also not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities, nor shall there be any sale of securities in any states or jurisdictions in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction. No offering of securities shall be made except by means of a prospectus meeting the requirements of section 10 of the Securities Act, or an exemption therefrom.

Important Information About the Business Combination and Where to Find It

In connection with the proposed business combination, Seaport Global Acquisition intends to file preliminary and definitive proxy statements with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The preliminary and definitive proxy statements and other relevant documents will be sent or given to the stockholders of Seaport Global Acquisition as of the record date established for voting on the proposed business combination and will contain important information about the proposed business combination and related matters. Stockholders of Seaport Global Acquisition and other interested persons are advised to read, when available, the preliminary proxy statement and any amendments thereto and, once available, the definitive proxy statement, in connection with Seaport Global Acquisition's solicitation of proxies for the meeting of stockholders to be held to approve, among other things, the proposed business combination because the proxy statement will contain important information about Seaport Global Acquisition, Redbox and the proposed business combination. When available, the definitive proxy statement will be mailed to Seaport Global Acquisition's stockholders as of a record date to be established for voting on the proposed business combination. Stockholders will also be able to obtain copies of the proxy statement, without charge, once available, at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov/ or by directing a request to: Seaport Global Acquisition Corp., 360 Madison Avenue, 20th Floor, New York, NY 10017, Attention: Secretary, telephone: (212) 616-7700. The information contained on, or that may be accessed through, the websites referenced in this communication is not incorporated by reference into, and is not a part of, this communication.

Participants in the Solicitation

Seaport Global Acquisition, Redbox and their respective directors and executive officers may be deemed participants in the solicitation of proxies from Seaport Global Acquisition's stockholders in connection with the business combination. Seaport Global Acquisition's stockholders and other interested persons may obtain, without charge, more detailed information regarding the directors and officers of Seaport Global Acquisition in Seaport Global Acquisition's final prospectus filed with the SEC on December 1, 2020 in connection with Seaport Global Acquisition's initial public offering. Information regarding the persons who may, under SEC rules, be deemed participants in the solicitation of proxies to Seaport Global Acquisition's stockholders in connection with the proposed business combination will be set forth in the proxy statement for the proposed business combination when available. Additional information regarding the interests of participants in the solicitation of proxies in connection with the proposed business combination will be included in the proxy statement that Seaport Global Acquisition intends to file with the SEC.

No Offer or Solicitation

This communication shall neither constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities, nor shall there be any sale of securities in any jurisdiction in which the offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to the registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.

Forward-Looking Statements

This communication includes certain statements that are not historical facts but are forward-looking statements for purposes of the safe harbor provisions under the United States Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements generally are accompanied by words such as "believe," "may," "will," "estimate," "continue," "anticipate," "intend," "expect," "should," "would," "plan," "predict," "potential," "seem," "seek," "future," "outlook," and similar expressions that predict or indicate future events or trends or that are not statements of historical matters. All statements, other than statements of present or historical fact included in this communication, regarding Seaport Global Acquisition's proposed business combination with Redbox, Seaport Global Acquisition's ability to consummate the transaction, the benefits of the transaction and the combined company's future financial performance, as well as the combined company's strategy, future operations, estimated financial position, estimated revenues and losses, projected costs, prospects, plans and objectives of management are forward-looking statements. These statements are based on various assumptions, whether or not identified in this communication, and on the current expectations of the respective management of Seaport Global Acquisition and Redbox and are not predictions of actual performance. These forward-looking statements are provided for illustrative purposes only and are not intended to serve as, and must not be relied on as, a guarantee, an assurance, a prediction or a definitive statement of fact or probability. Actual events and circumstances are difficult or impossible to predict and will differ from assumptions. Many actual events and circumstances are beyond the control of Seaport Global Acquisition or Redbox. Potential risks and uncertainties that could cause the actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, changes in domestic and foreign business, market, financial, political and legal conditions; the inability of the parties to successfully or timely consummate the business combination, including the risk that any regulatory approvals are not obtained, are delayed or are subject to unanticipated conditions that could adversely affect the combined company or the expected benefits of the business combination or that the approval of the stockholders of Seaport Global Acquisition or Redbox is not obtained; failure to realize the anticipated benefits of business combination; risk relating to the uncertainty of the projected financial information with respect to Redbox; the amount of redemption requests made by Seaport Global Acquisition's stockholders; the overall level of consumer demand for Redbox's products; general economic conditions and other factors affecting consumer confidence, preferences, and behavior; disruption and volatility in the global currency, capital, and credit markets; the financial strength of Redbox's customers; Redbox's ability to implement its business and growth strategy; changes in governmental regulation, Redbox's exposure to litigation claims and other loss contingencies; disruptions and other impacts to Redbox's business, as a result of the COVID-19 pandemic and government actions and restrictive measures implemented in response, and as a result of the proposed transaction; Redbox's ability to retain and expand customer relationships; competitive pressures from many sources, including those using other distribution channels, having more experience, larger or more appealing inventory, better financing, and better relationships with those in the physical and streaming movie and television industries; developments in the home video distribution market as newer technologies and distribution channels compete for market share, and Redbox experiences a secular decline in the physical rental market; the impact of decreased quantity and quality of movie content availability for physical and digital distribution due to changes in quantity of new releases by studios, movie content failing to appeal to consumers' tastes, increased focus on digital sales and rentals, and other general industry-related factors; the termination, non-renewal or renegotiation on materially adverse terms of Redbox's contracts or relationships with one or more of its significant retailers or studios; Redbox's inability to obtain licenses to digital movie or television content for home entertainment viewing; Redbox's reliance upon a number of partners to make its digital service available on their devices; unforeseen costs and potential liability in connection with content Redbox acquires, produces, licenses and/or distributes through its service; the impact of the COVID-19 pandemic on Redbox's business, results of operations and financial condition, its suppliers and customers and on the global economy; the impact that global climate change trends may have on Redbox and its suppliers and customers; Redbox's ability to protect patents, trademarks and other intellectual property rights; any breaches of, or interruptions in, Seaport Global Acquisition's information systems; fluctuations in the price, availability and quality of electricity and other raw materials and contracted products as well as foreign currency fluctuations; changes in tax laws and liabilities, tariffs, legal, regulatory, political and economic risks.

More information on potential factors that could affect Seaport Global Acquisition's or Redbox's financial results is included from time to time in Seaport Global Acquisition's public reports filed with the SEC, including its Annual Report on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q, and Current Reports on Form 8-K as well as the preliminary and the definitive proxy statements that Seaport Global Acquisition intends to file with the SEC in connection with Seaport Global Acquisition's solicitation of proxies for the meeting of stockholders to be held to approve, among other things, the proposed business combination. If any of these risks materialize or Seaport Global Acquisition's or Redbox's assumptions prove incorrect, actual results could differ materially from the results implied by these forward-looking statements. There may be additional risks that neither Seaport Global Acquisition nor Redbox presently know, or that Seaport Global Acquisition and Redbox currently believe are immaterial, that could also cause actual results to differ from those contained in the forward-looking statements. In addition, forward-looking statements reflect Seaport Global Acquisition's and Redbox's expectations, plans or forecasts of future events and views as of the date of this communication. Seaport Global Acquisition and Redbox anticipate that subsequent events and developments will cause their assessments to change. However, while Seaport Global Acquisition and Redbox may elect to update these forward-looking statements at some point in the future, Seaport Global Acquisition and Redbox specifically disclaim any obligation to do so, except as required by law. These forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing Seaport Global Acquisition's or Redbox's assessments as of any date subsequent to the date of this communication. Accordingly, undue reliance should not be placed upon the forward-looking statements.

Redbox Meets all of the Criteria of an Ideal Target for SGAM

Criteria	Key Consideration
Financial Health	The Company generated $114 million of Adjusted EBITDA (21% margins) in 2020, with a lack of content and lockdowns stemming from the COVID-19 pandemic, and expects to grow its Adjusted EBITDA at a compound annual growth rate of 28% through 2023
Transformational Circumstance	Proven success metrics for Redbox digital and Redbox owned content business meets public equity partnership to accelerate growth
Leading Industry Position	The Redbox model enjoys significant barriers to entry and is well positioned to convert its powerful and loyal customer base into its digital offering
Free Cash Flow	Redbox, on average, converts 80%+ of its Adjusted EBITDA directly into free cash flow, which is expected to grow 34% annually through 2023
Strong and Diverse Management	Current management has extensive industry and operational expertise and leverages a diverse and sophisticated team
Potential for Acquisitions	Redbox digital platform provides multiple opportunities to consolidate platform content, both horizontally and vertically
Benefit from Public Company	Access to public equity capital markets will help Redbox more effectively reach its operational goals as well as drive shareholder value
Extenuating Circumstances	COVID had a larger impact on Redbox's legacy business from shelter in place orders and exhibition closures impacting the release of new movies. Markets are reopening and new theatrical movies are now being released
Favorable Industry Outlook	The AVOD and SVOD markets are expected to be a $44 billion market opportunity in 2021 alone and continue to grow in the years to come

Lack of Content Impacts Q2 2020 to Q2 2021 Results

COVID's major impact on the Hollywood ecosystem resulted in substantially fewer theatrical titles in FY 2020 relative to FY 2018 and FY 2019 which continues to impact 2021

- 2020 title count was materially lower than we typically see (>50%); in 2019 we released 140 titles and in 2018 we released 160 titles
- Although 2021 titles build throughout the year, studios continue to change the slate
 - 13 fewer titles are now expected in H2 2021 than previously planned
 - Seven of those titles are now expected to release in 2022 while the other six titles were sold to SVOD services
 - In addition, to allow more theaters to fully open worldwide, a number of titles releasing in 2021 have been delayed to later in the year
 - Timing of release is a large factor of title performance in the year; as titles are released later in the year, more rentals are pushed into 2022

Notes: Slate as of 6/24/2021. Theatrical titles are defined as titles earning $5MM or more in box office dollars. Changes to theatrical title counts for Q1/Q2 2021 were definitional for titles that did or did not trip $5MM at the box office

Risk Factors

- Redbox faces competitive pressures from many other sources, including those using other distribution channels, having more experience, larger or more appealing inventory, better financing, and better relationships with those in the physical and streaming movie and television industries.
- The home video distribution market is rapidly evolving as newer technologies and distribution channels compete for market share, and we have experienced a secular decline in the physical rental market.
- Decreased quantity and quality of movie content availability for physical and digital distribution due to changes in quantity of new releases by studios, movie content failing to appeal to consumers' tastes, increased focus on digital sales and rentals, and other general industry-related factors, including financial disruptions, and labor conflicts may impact our revenue.
- The termination, non-renewal or renegotiation on materially adverse terms of our contracts or relationships with one or more of our significant retailers or studios could seriously harm our business, financial condition and results of operations.
- Our inability to obtain licenses to digital movie or television content for home entertainment viewing could adversely affect our business.
- We rely upon a number of partners to make our digital service available on their devices. Their performance may, including any outages, could negatively impact our results.
- We face risks, such as unforeseen costs and potential liability in connection with content we acquire, produce, license and/or distribute through our service.
- If the technology we use in operating our business fails, is unavailable, or does not operate to expectations, our business and results of operation could be adversely impacted.
- Demand for our products and services may be sensitive to pricing changes.
- As our business expands to provide new products and services, and as we continue our efforts to enhance the Redbox customer experience, we are increasing the amount of consumer data that we collect, transfer, retain and use as part of our business. These activities are subject to laws and regulations, as well as industry standards, in the jurisdictions in which our products and services are or may be made available.
- Our future operating results will depend significantly on our ability to continue to drive new and repeat use of our Redbox kiosks, continued development of digital offerings, our ability to develop and commercialize new products and services, such as third-party kiosk servicing line of business, and the costs incurred to do so.
- Failure to adequately comply with privacy notices, information security policies, standards or legal requirements or to adequately safeguard against breaches of such policies, standards or requirements could adversely affect our operations and could damage our business, reputation, financial position and results of operations.
- Any significant disruption in or unauthorized access to our computer systems or those of third parties that we utilize in our operations, including those relating to cybersecurity or arising from cyber-attacks, could result in a loss or degradation of service, unauthorized disclosure of data, including member and corporate information, or theft of intellectual property, including digital content assets, which could adversely impact our business.
- The application of existing laws and regulations, changes in laws or enactment of new laws and regulations, that apply, or may in the future apply, to our current or future products or services, changes in governmental authorities' interpretation of the application of various government regulations to our business, or the failure or inability to gain and retain required permits and approvals could materially and adversely affect our business.
- Events outside of our control, including the economic environment, or business interruption created by natural disasters or global pandemics, have negatively affected, and could continue to negatively affect, consumers' use of our products and services.
- The loss of key personnel or the inability of replacements to quickly and successfully perform in their new roles could adversely affect our business.
- Our ability to obtain additional funding in the future, if and as needed, through equity issuances or loans, or otherwise meet our current obligations to third parties, could be adversely affected if the economic environment continues to be difficult.
- We have debt outstanding and may incur additional debt in the future, which may adversely affect our financial condition and future financial results.
- If we are unable to meet our debt obligations, we could be forced to restructure or refinance such obligations, seek additional equity financing or sell assets, which we may not be able to do on satisfactory terms or at all.
